Seeing Potential ~ Inspiring Opportunities

Meet The New Newsletter Editors

Starting this month you will see changes with HOPE's newsletter. Kent Spiess has taken over as Editor with the assistance of Christina Clark and Stephanie Jones. Kent would like you to submit pictures or short articles of activities that you participate in.

Please send to kspiess@henrydd.org

My name is Christina Clark I have worked at Hope Services as the morning receptionist for three years.

My favorite football team are the Michigan Wolverines and I love to play video games in my spare time. I look forward to being a part of the newsletter staff.

My name is Kent Spiess. I live in Liberty Center and enjoy going out to eat at Winchester's. My favorite food is Reese's peanut butter cupcakes. My favorite high school football team is Liberty Center Tigers especially when they beat PH!!! My job has been reporting the Special Olympics news for six years. I look forward to working on the new HOPE newsletter with Christina and Stephanie. I encourage you to send me suggestions, pictures and Information on what is happening with you and your community.

My name is Stephanie Jones and I live in Napoleon. I have been employed at HOPE for five years as the afternoon receptionist and I enjoy my job. The things I especially enjoy about my job are answering the telephone, greeting customers who walk in the door and shredding. I am happy that I have a great job and I look forward to working on the newsletter.

Working safe through the pandemic

Loving Her Job

Shelby began working at Joann Fabrics in August of this year with support from Supported Employment Service and OOD. Shelby stocks products, waits on customers and helps to keep the store neat and tidy. Shelby is getting ready for the holiday shoppers.

Congratulations

David for obtaining your driver's permit.
